

Research Seminar I

Code: 66701

Character: Compulsory

Credits: 4

Type: Theoretical

Hours by week: 2

Hours

Theory: 2

Practice: 2

Thematic Content

General Objective

To keep Following the research project from the student.

Specifics objectives:

This activity is performed under supervision from the principal tutor. The main purpose is to keep following the research activity that the student has done and finish in the job that will make the student get graduated.

Unit 1

The research seminar consist in weekly meetings with students and senior tutor, they will discuss and consider different aspects related with research work that the student has been done.

The seminar will be evaluated based on:

- 1) Speech or seminar that the student will present to the tutor committee.
- 2) A written report including the half-year semester progress on the research project. The report will be appending in the student inform and will be including the protocol for master graduation project finishing during the next semester.

The grade assigned to the research seminar will be approve or denied.

Elementary Bibliography:

The bibliography will be depending on the research subject of each student.

